

THE SUMMER REBELLION

Freak Blues

BIOGRAPHY

As coming from a cave where rock would not have lost its authentic savagery, David Koczij rumbles with a rasping voice. With a raw sound he perturbs the modern comfort and ordinary heroes, the exile and hazed trip.

He bonds with the accordionist Arthur Bacon, who creates the arrangements, it is influenced by blues, pop, rock and electro.

A carnival music a tad off-the-wall, performed by a trio raised with dynamite. A stormy revolution which handles irreverence with measures of subtlety.
